PAINTING

Painting of SAS Land Rover

Under the SAS troops which took part in most of the postwar operations against rebellions, the SAS Land Rover rendered services in Malaya, Borneo, Aden and Oman, Doha, etc. on the Persian Gulf. The standard painting in Europe was overall dark-green painting but vehicles outside Europe were repainted differently according to operational areas. In the Middle East, they were painted in desert pink and soldiers in that area nicknamed them "Pink Panther". Some wore flat black or red brown camouflage patterns on the European standard painting, which were sharply outlined by gentle curves peculiar to British military vehicles.

Painting of Your Model

For overall painting, use either Desert Pink or Dark Green according to operations. For painting of parts, see the assembly drawings. Painting instructions are also given at page 4. Enjoy painting to lend realism to your model.
Bemalung des SAS Land Rover
Bei den SAS Truppen die in den meisten der vergangenen Operationen gegen Rebellen eingesetzt waren, war auch der Land Rover dabei: Malaya, Borneo, Aden, Oman, Doha und am Persischem Golf. In Europa ist die Farbe dunkelgrün, aber ausserhalb - im mittlerem und fernem Osten wurde die Bemalung dem Gelände angepasst - Wüstenpink. Daher kommt auch der Landsername: Pink Panther. In Europa wurden auch auf dunkelgrün mattschwarze und rotbraune Flecken aufgemalt.
